DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 3/15/06 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 14, 15, 19-37 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Chaux (4,852,552). Chaux discloses a device comprising a first arm, second arm, a mechanism comprising a rack bar (8) between arms and crank (16), Chaux disclosed in figure 6, the arm (28) moving away and vertically with respect to the arm (34)

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claim 18 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Chaux '552 in view of Coker (5,363,841). Although, Chaux does not disclose the first arm including a plurality of fingers, attention is directed to Coker '841 reference which discloses a retractor including blades with fingers. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the Chaux's blade by having fingers extending from the blade in order to provide a better gripping characteristic for the blade such that the fingers grasps the tissue and locks/parts the tissue aside.

Double Patenting

6. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

7. Claims 14, 15, 18-37 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-11 of U. S. Patent No.

6,746,467. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the claims of the application are anticipated by the claimed invention of the patent.

8. Claims 14, 15, 18-37 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-39 of U. S. Patent No. 6,602,189. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the claims of the application are anticipated by the claimed invention of the patent.

9. Claims 14, 15, 18-37 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-87 of U. S. Patent No. 5,944,736. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the claims of the application are anticipated by the claimed invention of the patent.

10. Claims 14, 15, 18-37 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-12 of U. S. Patent No. 5,976,171. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the claims of the application are anticipated by the claimed invention of the patent.

11. Claims 14, 15, 18-37 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-45 of U. S. Patent No. 5,730,757. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the claims of the application are anticipated by the claimed invention of the patent.
